

Luis comes from Mexico , studies linguistics and has been active for AStA International since February 2021. As the oldest wolf in the team, Luis is very familiar with the complicated processes at the university and the confusing amount of departments. Luis will help you find the right contact person for you.